TIM ALBAUGH'S

BUILDING A SCRIPT FROM THE GROUND UP

The core elements of every good script:

- STRUCTURE
- THEME
- ELEMENTS OF STRONG CENTRAL CHARACTERS
- THE CORE OF A CHARACTER (Motivation; Action; Goal)
- HOW TO FIND A CHARACTER'S "VOICE"
- CONFLICT
- SUBPLOTS
- THE WORLD OF YOUR MOVIE
- UNITY OF OPPOSITES

We'll look at these elements individually, then discuss how to use them to build a solid script, from the ground up. Be sure to watch the assigned films ahead of time that Tim will use as the basis for all discussion.

Then 90 minutes will be devoted to The Art of The Pitch. We'll discuss what makes a good pitch; what you should and shouldn't pitch. How to go about it. Maybe even hear a few from the group.

At the end of the day, Tim will hand out a one-page worksheet on which the participants can write their LOGLINE, the 8 KEY COMPONENTS of their screenplay's STRUCTURE, their two main SUBPLOTS and their CHARACTER ARCS.
